The Tariff.

which Gen. McKay is Chairman, has at last reported a tariff hill. We give below a synonsis of its principal features. It is substan ker for the use of the Committee. There is, perhaps, no task more difficult than to frame views, and the feelings of those whose pursuits and occupations are so diverse as are those of the people of the United States, spread interests of all sections, we believe, but still an individual and a Democrat, we cannot entirely approve of, we are free to confess. A CARD,

To the Voters of Columbus County Fellow citizens-I feel under many obligations to you for having so long and so often elected me Sheriff of your county. For your hitherto liberal confidence in my abilities to the faithful discharge of my duties, I return Greene, Haywood, Huntington, Jarnagin, en Holmes, Esqr., and Jere. Nixon and David to you my sincere thanks and best wishes for Johnson of Maryland, Johnson of Louisiana, McIntire, our former Representatives, for the your future happiness and prosperity. I am now getting old and infirm, and having served you for thirty-seven years. I now wish to re-Resolved, That the thanks of this Conven- tire; and I hope, that, in the selection of anothsome gentleman that will still show the people that sympathy which is still die them. and that they may, in times of necessity, estend to him that liberal support which the good people of Columbus have ever been rosdy to bestow upon me.

My best wishes for you, fellow-citizens, and the many manifestations of your friendship towards me during the whole tehn of thirtyseven years, shall long be remembered and du ly appreciated, by

Your ob't serv't. JOSHUA WILLIAMSON. April 18th, 1846.

Fayelleville, April 18, 1846. JAMES B. SHEPARD, ESq.

My Dear Sir: In order that there may be a concentration of the energies of our party upon one c. ndidate, I have been induced by the earnest and reseated solicitations of many of our political frends, to submit to you the following proposition, which I do thus publicly, for reasons which must be obvious to all.

Whether the proposal meets with your approbation or not, I trust it will be ascribed to an earnest desire on my part to do all I can to preserve hermony, without which, present and certain defeat to ourselves, as well as lesting mittee retired, and after a short interval made future injury to our party, must be the inevitathe following report, which was read and de- ble result. In union we have strength, but it must be apparent to all, that without mutual concession on our part, there can be no union.

I prepose, then, that our relative claims be submitted to the " Democratic State Certral Committee as appointed by the President of the late Convention, with the understanding fore them, with full powersto settle this yexed of the "Standard," pledging myself to shide

In the event of any contingency arising

Should you close in with this proposition, Respectfully yours. W. F. LEAK.
